The Candidacy of Judge Green—An Illus

Some days ago we published in the In-LUGENCER a copy of the private circular issued before the assembling of the State Democratic Convention at Martinsburg, (and circulated at that Convention) on behalf of the nomination of Judge Green order to resist the oppressions put up-on Virginia in 1860 he shouldered his Count musket and went to war to destroy the Government of the United States. We re-quote from the circular on this head as follows:

"It is hardly necessary to say that Judge Green is in thorough sympathy with the people of our State. His ancestors were Virginians; he was born and educated in Virginia, and his whole professional life has been spent in the limits of what is now the State of West Virginia. He has ever been, as might noturally be expected, a States rights man; ready to oppose encroachment on the rights of his State, even when opposition included great personal sacrifices. Believing that his State was being oppressed he took up arms in her defense and served faithfully as a private in the Second Virginia Infantry regiment, following Stonewall Jackson in his splendid campaigns."

This circular was not intended for newspaper publication. It never saw the light in that way until the INTELLIGENCER obtained a copy of it and published it on the 10th inst. Its object was to appeal quietly to the Confederate element in the convention, (which it was known would over-whelmingly predominate in that body), on his behalf, and thus secure the endorsement of the West Virginia Democracy on behalf of his record, including not only his attempt to overthrow the Government of the United States by arms, but his record since then, in which he undertook on the bench of this State to pronounce certain reconstruction legislation, enacted by Congress, unconstitutional, null and void.

In securing Green's nomination the one hand defeating measures of relief and Bourbon element secured, along with Jake on the other hand disorders increasing Jackson, a thorough going representa-tive of Bourbonism. We presume that it is no exaggeration to say that Judge The two causes of trouble react upon and Green is a Bourbon of the Bourbons. He increase each other. The more the lords holds to all the narrow and provincial views that are esteemed Virginian and cals, the "squirearchy"-oppose the lib-Southern on this subject. For, said he:

"It was not settled by the war; it has not been beaten out of the Democratic leaders, and let me assure you that it is as strongly intrenhed in the hearts of these men at the present time as it ever was in the history of the Government. The doctrine of States rights was appealed to to perpetuate human slavery; it was appealed to the keep the slave trade open until [1808; it was appealed to for the purpose of the North, to extend slavery into the free territories, and finally it was appealed to to justify secession and rebellion. It is appealed to now in order that the Southern States may deny to the black people their rights. By this you will see that the doctrine of States rights has never been appealed to in the history of this country except when somebody wanted to steal something from somebody else, [Applause.] I detest the doctrine. I abhor it in every drop of my blood. This is not a confederacy; this is a nation. a confederacy; this is a nation. I have the same right to speak here in Massachusetts that I have in Illinois, not because the flag of Massachusetts floats over me—because I would not know it if I should see it. It is because the right is guaranteed to me by the flag of the republic."

The candidacy of such a man as Judge Green, resting as it does so largely upon his record during the war, and his well ascertained disposition on the bench of the highest court of this State to nullify the reconstruction legislation of Congress, is a menace toward all the National ideas and theories supposed to be included in the reconstruction legislation of Congress, is a menace toward all the National ideas and theories supposed to be included in the reconstruction legislation of Congress, is a menace toward all the National ideas and theories supposed to be included in the reconstruction legislation of Congress, is a menace toward all the National ideas and theories supposed to be included in the reconstruction legislation of Congress, is a menace toward all the National ideas and theories supposed to be included in the reconstruction legislation of Congress, is a menace toward all the National ideas and the congress is a many Republicans and Greenbackers presents at the Republicans and Greenbackers presents as the state were Democrats.

He attempted to "bully-rag" us people to "chanting" the tune of the "bloody shirt" all over the East and North, and that we, east and North, and that we people were the cast and North, and that we people were the cast and North, and that we people were the construction of the "bloody shirt" all over the East and North, and that we people were the cast and North, and that we people were the cast and North, and that we people were the cast and North, and that we people were the East and North, and that we people were the cast and North, and that we people were the East and North, and that we people were the cast and North, and the relation of the people were the cast and North, and the well as theories supposed to be included in the results of the war. It is plain that he accepts nothing that militates against the dogma of States' rights, States' supremacy, and the right of a State to nullify a law of "thin." Congrees. It would seem impossible for human language to express the idea of National supremacy in stronger terms than this, and yet Judge Green, is one of our very enterprising Democratic in common with the Bourbonism of West citizens. How enterprising these Democrats are I fit they run West Virginia a Way of refining all this language into airy and misty nothingness. They hold that a State court—not the U.S. Supreme West State.

Messrs. C. M. and J. B. Hart are recetting new machine shops at the West End. Mr. R. T. Lowndes takes the old force of a law of Congress—as Green did in the case of Taylor Strauder—which simply means that "the judges in every

From Thirty-one of the Fifty-four Virginia Counties-Thirty-one Per Cent of Increase in the Population. We are indebted to Col. Geo. R. Latham Supervisor of Census for the First West for the Supreme Court of Appeals of this Virginia Census district, for the following State. In this circular great stress was laid on the fact that Green is a thorough population in his district, which comprises going States rights Democrat, and that in thirty-one of the fifty-four counties of the
